

GLI RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED AWARD AT SAGSE EXPO 2008

Karen Sierra-Hughes Honored as VIP Woman of Gaming

BUENOS AIRES (October 29, 2008) – SAGSE honored Gaming Laboratories International with two awards during its recent tradeshow. First, SAGSE distinguished GLI as “the most recognized and important laboratory, and its achievements and dedication to the Latin American region.”

Next, GLI Manager Latin America/Spain Development Karen Sierra-Hughes was honored as a “VIP Woman of Gaming in Latin America.” The awards were given during SAGSE’s Gala del Juego.

GLI President James R. Maida said, “We are thrilled and humbled to be recognized for our efforts in Latin America, particularly as we celebrate 10 years of service in the region. And we are especially pleased that Karen was noted for her dedication and hard work on behalf of Latin American regulators.”

Since being accredited as the first independent certification laboratory in Peru more than 10 years ago, GLI has concentrated its efforts to serving clients in the region. GLI currently works with regulators and government agencies in Argentina, Chile, Mexico, Panama and Peru. GLI also services numerous countries in the Caribbean.

Gaming Laboratories International operates nine fully accredited testing laboratories worldwide, in addition to fully accredited inspection bodies in America, Europe and Africa. GLI is the only independent testing laboratory of its kind to hold both U.S. and International accreditations for compliance with ISO 17025 and 17020 standards for technical competence in testing and inspection services.
